The Westminster Municipal Code imposes an admissions tax upon the purchase price paid for the right or privilege of admission to:

- ❖ A performance of a motion picture;
- ❖ An establishment open to the public that is licensed to sell, dispense or serve fermented malt beverages (three and two-tenths percent beer) or alcoholic beverages (liquor) pursuant to state law
- ❖ Any public display of live animals or plants.

Additionally, admissions tax is imposed upon charges for the right to use bowling alleys and pin setters, including charges for bowling by the line.

Admissions charge includes the value of free passes and complimentary admissions tickets provided by the operator.

THE CITY. IT IS NOT INTENDED FOR LEGAL PURPOSES TO BE SUBSTITUTED FOR THE FULL TEXT OF THE WESTMINSTER MUNICIPAL CODE AND APPLICABLE RULES AND REGULATIONS. THIS GUIDE DOES NOT CONSTITUTE A CITY TAX POLICY.
