Firefighters' Safety and Collective Bargaining Question

Shall the City Council of the City of Westminster enact an ordinance by July 1, 2017, which would prohibit Westminster firefighters from striking and create a mutual obligation between the designated representative of Westminster firefighters and the City to bargain collectively in good faith with respect to such terms that include, but might not be limited to, wages, benefits, and items related to personal safety, with such agreements made upon these terms memorialized in a contract enacted by the City Council, with disputes resolved by nonbinding arbitration with impasses to be submitted to the electors of the City for final resolution?
