

SLBT Update for the Week of September 16, 2019

- * Members of the Tagging Committee are currently vetting the Secure XP tags. Members of the committee have requested this as a possible temporary system until the NOKĒ lock software has been updated (scheduled in January 2020).
- * The internal taskforce will meet again on October 7th with the Tagging Committee scheduled to meet shortly after during that week.